

DIALECTICAL BEHAVIORAL THERAPY (DBT) GROUP

Each Tuesday and Thursday from 1-3 p.m.

Our Dialectical Behavioral Therapy – also known as DBT - skills group will focus on teaching:

- Mindfulness - awareness of self and others in the present moment
- Emotional regulation - recognizing labeling and adjusting emotions and reactions
- Distress tolerance - handling intense emotions, without impulsive behaviors, self-harm or substances; and
- Interpersonal effectiveness - assertiveness and dealing with conflicts

This DBT skills group is specifically tailored for the LGBTQIAA2S community. Everyone is welcome here.

This group also approaches DBT from a harm-reduction model, and abstinence is not required but encouraged.

The cost is $50 per group meeting and standard $200 per individual session. Most insurance accepted and sliding scale fees available.

Call Leah at 612-373-9162 or Tynessia at 612-373-2469 to complete a client intake or for questions.
